

Sleigh bells ring for a July ‘Sleigh Ride’ in Southbury

WATERBURY REPUBLICAN-AMERICAN (CT)

Southbury, Connecticut
June 30, 2008

Concert for Reception for Leroy Anderson Exhibit

It’s “All Anderson - all July” at the Southbury Public Library, as the famous Woodbury composer’s life and works are celebrated during Anderson’s centennial year of 2008. Visitors can learn more about Leroy Anderson, composer of such well known pieces as “Sleigh Ride,” “The Syncopated Clock,” “Blue Tango,” and “Bugler’s Holiday,” in images, words, videos, and music, with family photographs, reproductions of original music manuscripts, and personal memorabilia, as well as the composer’s own words about how he approached his craft.

Leroy Anderson Exhibition

A short video and music DVD features Anderson conducting his music.

An opening reception is scheduled for July 1, 2008 at 12:30 PM and will feature Alyce Cagnetta-Bertz, violin and Susan Theodus, piano in a performance of Ten Compositions by Leroy Anderson arranged for Piano and Violin by the composer. Rolf Anderson, a son of the composer, will present the PBS/ Swedish Television biographical video about Leroy Anderson titled “Once Upon A Sleigh Ride” - the life and music of Leroy Anderson. Light refreshments will be served by the Friends of the Southbury Library. Admission is free although seating is limited.

Southbury Library
July 1, 2008, 12:30 p.m.

Opening Reception for the
Leroy Anderson Exhibit

Ten Compositions by Leroy Anderson arranged for Piano and Violin
by the composer

Alyce Cagnetta-Bertz, Violin
Susan Theodus, Piano

The Life and Music of Leroy Anderson
A Peter Rosen/PBS/Swedish Television
Film
Film and exhibit presented by Rolf Anderson

July 1 - July 31 2008

An Exhibition entitled
Leroy Anderson:
An American Composer

100 Poverty Road
Southbury, Connecticut

For more information about the exhibition contact:
The Leroy Anderson Foundation

Photographs on this page
by Rolf Anderson

LEROY ANDERSON FOUNDATION
PO Box 447
WOODBURY CT 06798 USA